Awards for Land-based and
Aquaculture Skills

Our ALBAS celebrate the hard work and achievements of Modern Apprentices, trainees, pupils, mentors, training providers and secondary schools in Scotland's land-based and aquaculture sector.

They recognise the inspirational qualities and outstanding contributions that our nominees make, while showcasing the many rewarding careers on offer.

The awards culminate in a high profile ceremony in the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Dunblane Hydro on Thursday 3rd March 2022, hosted by farmer and stand-up comedian, Jim Smith.

Your support makes it possible for us to celebrate the achievements of Scotland's top trainees and training programmes. All contributions go towards the overall running costs of our event and will be gratefully acknowledged.

Main Supporter

In our most prestigious support option, your organisation gains maximum benefit from the awards, from the nomination process right through to the high-profile ceremony itself. Other benefits may also be available, so please ask us for details.
